Bring films under Consumer Protection Act

126. SHRI GHUFRAN AZAM: Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government propose to bring films under the purview of Consumer Protection Act to check excessive violence and sex;

(b) if so, whether Government propose to reconstitute the Censor Board and also to nominate women representatives; and

(c) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI K. P. SINGH DEO): (a) One of the suggestions received by the Ministry for curbing excessive sex and violence in films was that films should be brought within the purview of the Consumer Protection Act. This is under consideration.

(b) and (c) The members of the existing Central Board of Film Certification were appointed w.e.f. 7.10.91 for a term of three years. The Board is propsed to be reconstituted, with due representation to women, in October 1994 when the term of the existing members will expire.
